For the matter to be aptly investigated, the Whistle Blower may choose to disclose his/her identity along with the details of the complaint. While the anonymous complaints will also be suitably and sincerely looked into, it will provide more leverage and will be pertinent to investigate the complaint

	sufficiently if the Whistle Blower chooses to disclose his /her identity. The identity of the whistleblower shall be kept confidential to the maximum reasonable extent.
Investigation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy will be thoroughly investigated by the Chairperson of the Audit Committee and Ethics Counsellor who will investigate and oversee the investigations under the authorization of the Audit Committee.</li> <li>(b) The Chairperson of the Audit Committee/ Ethics Counsellor may at his discretion, consider involving any investigators for the purpose of investigation.</li> <li>(c) The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Chairperson of the Audit Committee/ Ethics Counsellor is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. The outcome of the investigation may not support the conclusion of the Whistle Blower that an improper or unethical act was committed.</li> <li>(d) The identity of a Subject and the Whistle Blower will be kept confidential to the extent possible, given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.</li> <li>(e) Subjects will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.</li> <li>(f) Subjects shall have a duty to co-operate with the Chairperson of the Audit Committee/ Ethics Counsellor or any of the investigators during investigation to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.</li> <li>(g) Subjects have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than Ethics Counsellor/ investigators and/or members of the Audit Committee and/or the Whistle Blower. Subjects shall be free at any time to engage counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings. However, if the allegations against the Subject are not sustainable, then the Manager may see reason to reimburse such costs.</li> <li>(h) Subjects have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subjects.</li> <li>(i) Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subjects will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.</li> <li>(j) Subjects have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Embassy REIT.</li> <li>(k) The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure.</li> </ul>

Protection	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure.</li> <li>(b) The Manager will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus, if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Manager will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure etc.</li> <li>(c) No adverse action shall be taken against any employee for complaining about, reporting, or participating or assisting in the investigation of, a reasonably suspected violation of any law, this Policy, or the Code. The Manager takes reports of such retaliation seriously. Incidents of retaliation against any employee reporting a violation or participating in the investigation of a reasonably suspected violation will result in appropriate disciplinary action against anyone responsible, including possible termination of employment. Those working for or with the Manager who engage in retaliation against reporting employees may also be subject to civil, criminal and administrative penalties.</li> <li>(d) A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.</li> <li>(e) The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law.</li> <li>(f) Any other employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.</li> </ul>
Investigators	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) Investigators are required to conduct a process towards fact-finding and analysis. Investigators shall derive their authority and access rights from the Chairperson of the Audit Committee / Ethics Counsellor when acting within the course and scope of their investigation.</li> <li>(b) Technical and other resources may be drawn upon as necessary to augment the investigation. All investigators shall be independent and unbiased both in fact and as perceived. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behavior, and observance of legal and professional standards.</li> <li>(c) Investigations will be launched only after a preliminary review by the Chairperson of the Audit Committee / Ethics Counsellor, as the case may be, which establishes that:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) the alleged act constitutes an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	(ii) the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated or in cases where the allegation is not supported by specific information, it is felt that the concerned matter is worthy of management review. (d) Provided that such investigation should not be undertaken as an investigation of an improper or unethical activity or conduct.
Management Action on False Disclosures	Any personnel who knowingly makes false allegations of unethical &amp; improper practices or alleged wrongful conduct shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, in accordance with “REIT” rules, policies and procedures. Further this policy may not be used as a defense by an employee against whom an adverse personnel action has been taken independent of any disclosure made by him and for legitimate reasons or cause under “REIT” rules and policies.
Decision Making	If an investigation leads the Chairperson of the Audit Committee/ Ethics Counsellor to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Chairperson of the Audit Committee/ Ethics Counsellor shall recommend to the management of the Manager to take such disciplinary or corrective action as the Chairperson of the Audit Commit/ Ethics Counsellor may deem fit, in-line with the Code of the Manager. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.
Reporting	The Ethics Counsellor shall submit a report to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee on an annual basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him/her since the last report, together with the results of investigations, if any.
Retention	All Protected Disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of investigation relating thereto shall be retained by the Manager for a minimum period of eight years.
Implementation of policy	A copy of this Policy shall be uploaded on the website of the Manager. The Ethics Counsellor will ensure that this Policy is known to all Directors and Employees of the Embassy REIT, the Manager, the SPVs and the Holdco.
Amendment	Notwithstanding the above, this Policy will stand amended to the extent of any change in applicable law, including any amendment to the REIT Regulations, by the Board of Directors of the Manager, unilaterally, at any time without notice.
